

WHAT SHOULD WE DO ABOUT TORTURE?

Prevention, Law and Rehabilitation

When:

Tuesday June 26
6:00 - 8:00pm

Where:

Sydney Mechanics'
School of Arts
280 Pitt Street, Sydney
NSW 2000

Contact and RSVP:

aia.pittst@gmail.com

To mark The International Day in Support of Victims of Torture (June 26), the Pitt Street Amnesty Action Group and STARTTS are hosting a panel group to discuss the use of torture in the world today.

Chaired by Richard Ackland, panelists will discuss the current state of torture, how we can stop it, and its effects on victims.

Panelists:

PREVENTION

Aloysia Brooks . Researcher for the Torture Prevention Project

Danielle Celermajer - Director of the University of Sydney's Human Rights Program

LAW

Katie Wood - Governance Coordinator, Amnesty International Australia

REHABILITATION

Jorge Aroche . Psychologist and STARTTS CEO

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

Free event

Refreshments will be provided.