A generous salary packaging scheme is also offered.

PERIOD OF APPRAISAL: Performance will be assessed within 3 months of commencement and a 6 month probationary/qualifying period will also apply.

Background to STARTTS

STARTTS is a state-wide service funded by the NSW Department of Health and Commonwealth Department of Health to provide high quality assessment, treatment and rehabilitation services to people living in NSW who have experienced organised violence or trauma associated with the refugee experience. STARTTS is an Affiliated Health Organisation (AHO), a Non-Government Organisation whose services are deemed to be part of the NSW public health system.

STARTTS' service provision philosophy is predicated on a bio-psycho-social framework that incorporates a large range of clinical and psycho-social interventions informed by the latest advances in neuroscience and evidence based practice in relevant fields. As such, STARTTS provides a broad range of services including assessment; counselling for all age groups; psychiatric assessment and interventions; family therapy; group interventions; body-focused interventions such as massage, physiotherapy, acupuncture and pain management groups; support groups; programs for children and youth; and various strategies to increase the capacity of support networks and refugee communities to sustain their members.

The focus of the STARTTS' approach is on building capacity and empowering people and communities to take control over their own lives, using a strengths-based approach and building on individual, family, community and cultural strengths.

Background to the Program Area of the position

This position forms part of STARTTS Direct Service programme and will service both those clients who have entered Australia recently and have settled under the Humanitarian Settlement Strategy (HSS) and those who have resided longer. BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF ROLE

The position is to provide a comprehensive assessment, referral and counselling service to Refugee and Special Humanitarian Program entrants living in the Armidale region of NSW.

PRIMARY OBJECTIVES:

1. To identify traumatised people in refugee communities in Armidale and northern NSW and provide an assessment counselling and referral service to refugee families, children and adolescents.
 2. To provide short to medium term counselling and support services to refugees both newly arrived and established, whose experience of torture and trauma is affecting settlement and other areas of their lives.
 3. To develop and maintain productive partnerships between STARTTS and other services within Armidale and northern NSW relevant to the needs of newly arrived and established refugees to ensure effective service provision.
 4. To provide consultancy and/or training to other service providers working with newly arrived refugees and refugee communities including medical, allied health, counselling and other relevant service providers.
 5. To provide services as per the terms of the (Program of Assistance to Survivors of Torture and Trauma) PASTT contract and maintain productive working relationships with HSS service providers in the Northern NSW HSS Region.
 6. In collaboration with other STARTTS services, develop and implement relevant community education and social support programs of benefit to people from affected refugee communities.

PRIMARY DUTIES:

1. Assessment, counselling and community development

- 1.1. Provide a psycho-social and psychological assessment and referral service to refugee families, children and adolescents in accordance with PASTT contractual and other service delivery requirements.
- 1.2. Undertake training in use of the Refugee Comprehensive Assessment Tool (R-CAT) and utilise this tool when conducting assessments with refugee families, children and adolescents.
- 1.3. Support refugee families to develop a clear understanding of the issues which may affect them and their children, and to understand what services are available to them.
- 1.4. Develop and implement case plans in conjunction with refugee clients that will assist them to overcome psycho-social settlement difficulties, to manage their traumatic and psychological symptoms and to access relevant community resources.
- 1.5. Provide short to medium term counselling (an average of 8 sessions) to those newly arrived refugees whose experience of torture and trauma is affecting settlement and identify those requiring longer term support or specific interventions.
- 1.6. Liaise with HSP Case Coordinators in relation to the health and settlement needs of newly arrived refugees and facilitate their referral to mainstream health service providers, the Refugee Health Clinic, and/or relevant settlement services as determined by client need.
- 1.7. Provide counselling for clients that have been resident in Australia for more than twelve months and for clients exited from HSP on the basis of assessments conducted.
- 1.8. Promote assessment and counselling services through an information strategy including community information sessions, printed information in community languages and community radio. This includes translation of relevant information regarding STARTTS services where appropriate.
- 1.9. Introduce newly arrived and more established refugees to other STARTTS' programs specifically designed to assist people with their settlement process in Australia where these are available (such as the Families in Cultural Transition and residential programs).
- 1.10. Maintain proper records of client contact and assessment, case plans, referral and follow up and interventions.
- 1.11. Develop and maintain productive partnerships between STARTTS and other services in Armidale and the Northern NSW region relevant to the needs of refugees.
- 1.12. Work with local refugee communities to identify needs and encourage the development and maintenance of a supportive community infrastructure.
- 1.13. Gain thorough knowledge of the local community and services therein. Identify gaps in health care services and initiate new services in consultation with relevant STARTTS staff, local community organisations and refugee communities.

2. Training

- 2.1. With the support of the Training Team conduct training programs for medical, allied health, counselling and other relevant service providers and volunteer groups working with refugees.
- 2.2. Provide input to development of training materials relevant to the needs of services working with refugees focusing on the difficulties confronted in the initial period after arrival.

3. Administration

- 3.1. Ensure that a minimum counselling workload consistent with contractual obligations, service goals and financial accountability requirements are maintained.
- 3.2. Complete client based documentation associated with Direct Services HSS and non-HSS interventions as required.
- 3.3. Participate in the evaluation of the effectiveness of services provided.
- 3.4. Participate in weekly clinical supervision, fortnightly administrative supervision meetings and annual performance appraisals.
- 3.5. Participate in educational and professional development programs.

4. Reporting

- 4.1. Provide bimonthly progress reports to the Team Leader.
- 4.2. Prepare other reports as required.
