REFERRALS

STARTTS accepts referrals from any source, including self-referrals.

STARTTS is a state-wide service and is committed to providing access to specialised torture and trauma rehabilitation services across NSW. Apart from its metropolitan centres in Sydney, STARTTS provides direct services from our regional offices in Newcastle, Coffs Harbour and Wagga Wagga, Wollongong and Armidale, as well as outreach to a number of other regional locations.

To refer individuals and families who are experiencing problems related to their traumatic experiences you can do one of the following:

Call (02) 9646 6800 (Referrals)

Email stts-intakegeneral@health.nsw.gov.au
(referral form available on the STARTTS website)

You can also make a referral by contacting your local STARTTS office directly.

Please note: Consent must be obtained from clients before referring to STARTTS. Any child referrals (up to & including age 16) require parental consent before referrals are accepted & for unaccompanied minors (up to age 18) guardian consent is required where possible.

CONFIDENTIALITY & IMPARTIALITY

STARTTS operates on the basis of strictest confidentiality and impartiality.

Client information is not disclosed without the client's permission, except where required by law. All STARTTS employees and interpreters used by STARTTS are bound by confidentiality.

STARTTS believe that all people have a right to treatment and care when their human rights have been violated, no matter who they are. STARTTS works with individuals and groups requiring assistance regardless of their country of origin, political or religious beliefs.

Rural and Regional Services

RURAL & REGIONAL SERVICES

STARTTS provides assistance to refugees and other people from refugee-like backgrounds living in NSW who have experienced torture and/or other traumatic events prior to arrival in Australia. STARTTS' mission is to facilitate the healing process of survivors of torture and refugee trauma and to assist and resource individuals and other agencies who work with them.

OUR CLIENTS

- Individuals, families and communities from refugee and refugee-like situations, now living in NSW who have survived torture and other traumatic experiences in the context of organised violence
- Service providers in NSW, to whom STARTTS provides training, research, advocacy and consultancy services

OUR SERVICES

STARTTS provides a holistic range of services which have evolved in response to client needs and incorporate the latest developments in the treatment of trauma

- Culturally appropriate counselling & therapy (for individuals, families and groups)
- Group Work
- Activities for young people, including camps, excursions & groups
- Referral & case management
- Community liaison & consultation
- Community Development projects
- Training of mainstream service providers in awareness of refugee issues & strategies to work with this client group
- Lobbying & advocacy on refugee issues

HOW WE WORK

STARTTS:

- is a client-focussed and culturally appropriate service
- is responsive to changing client needs
- recognises the need for different approaches and services for different individuals and communities
- uses a multidisciplinary approach
- has strong community links
- works closely with refugee communities and other service providers to best meet the needs of refugees and trauma survivors

OUTREACH SERVICES

STARTTS works across NSW and we try to make our services available in as many locations as possible. As such, our staff work with individuals and communities in outreach locations outside our regional offices.

The map below shows the locations where we provide outreach. If you or your client lives in one of these areas, contact the nearest STARTTS regional office to make a referral.
